

General Psychology: University of New Mexico

General Psychology is a one-semester, three-credit course that uses the following materials:

Commercial Materials

- Textbook: Psychology

Authors: Stephen Davis and Joseph Palladino
Publisher: Prentice Hall
Edition: 4th edition

Commercial materials or materials developed by The University of New Mexico

- Test Questions

Description: The University of New Mexico has developed a test bank of more than 3,000 items drawn from a variety of commercial sources that are used for mastery quizzes and for studio quizzes. These items are integrated with videos and automations and coordinate with the textbook listed above. These questions are available in WebCT format. We anticipate that they will also be available in Blackboard format.

How to preview: To preview the test questions developed at the University of New Mexico, contact Gordon Hodge at ghodge@unm.edu.

How to obtain: The test questions developed at the University of New Mexico may be obtained by contacting Gordon Hodge at ghodge@unm.edu.

Projects who wish to use other test banks may contact the faculty for one-on-one advice about how to modify publisher test banks.

NOTE: Mastery quizzing is the most important aspect of the redesign that ensures student success at the University of New Mexico. Follow the link below for advice from the core academic practice associates in psychology about mastery quizzing.
