

The National Center for Academic Transformation

Application Cover Sheet

Colleagues Committed to Redesign (C²R)

The National Center for Academic Transformation (NCAT) has established a set of readiness criteria that are used to qualify prospective participants. To be considered, the first step is for the campus chief academic officer to send a brief narrative (no more than eight single-spaced pages) addressing each of the seven readiness criteria listed in the Application Guidelines.

The application includes this cover page and the narrative response to the Readiness Criteria. Please send one electronic copy of your completed application to Pat Bartscherer, Program Manager, patb@theNCAT.org.

Readiness statements must be received by January 15, 2009.

Course Title: _____ Annual Enrollment: _____
Institution: _____
Street Address: _____
City: _____ St: _____ Zip: _____

Please designate a primary contact for the project, with the understanding that the primary contact will share communications appropriately with the rest of the institutional team.

Contact Name: First _____ MI _____ Last _____
Title: _____
Campus Address: _____
Email address: _____
Telephone: _____ Fax: _____

If selected, my institution will send a four-person team to the C²R Redesign Disciplinary Institute in April 2009. I understand that the National Center for Academic Transformation will support the travel expenses of two team members and that my institution will support the expenses of the other two team members.

Name: _____ Signature: _____
(Chief Academic Officer)

To submit this form: 1) print and fax a signed copy to Pat Bartscherer at (518) 695-5633 AND 2) click the submit by email button below to send an electronic copy.