

The National Center for Academic Transformation

MISSOURI COURSE REDESIGN INITIATIVE
AGENDA
Workshop I: An Orientation to Course Redesign
February 18, 2011
Columbia, MO

10:00 – 10:15 Welcome

10:15 – 11:15 Course Redesign Overview – Carol Twigg

Provides an overview of NCAT's course redesign methodology, including examples of the Six Models of Course Redesign.

11:15 – 11:30 Break

11:30 – 12:45 Five Principles of Successful Course Redesign – Carolyn Jarmon

Engages participants in an interactive discussion of the Five Principles.

Materials

- Five Principles of Successful Course Redesign

12:45 – 2:00 Lunch

2:00 – 3:30 Getting Ready for Course Redesign – Carolyn Jarmon

Engages participants in an interactive discussion of the quality and cost planning tasks associated with redesign, including selecting the appropriate redesign model, assessing the impact of redesign on student learning and saving resources through redesign.

Materials

- Readiness Criteria
- Six Models of Course Redesign Summary
- Four Models for Assessing Student Learning
- Cost Reduction Strategies

3:30 – 4:00 What's Next – Carol Twigg

Discusses next steps in the grant application process and provides an overview of NCAT's Planning Resources that support course redesign.

Materials

- Application Guidelines
- Final Project Plan Format
- Homework for Workshop II
- Course Planning Tool (CPT)
- Course Redesign Planning Resources

For more information, see <http://www.theNCAT.org/States/MO.html>.